WESTERN FRONT CENTENARY
2016-2018

APPLICATION FORM

2016 COMMEMORATIONS, FRANCE

On the 19th and 23rd July 2016, we will gather at Fromelles and Pozières where 100 years ago the Australian Imperial Force fought its first major actions on the Western Front. In just over six weeks on the Somme, Australia suffered as many casualties as in eight months on Gallipoli.

The purpose of the commemorative services is to acknowledge the sacrifice of all Australian men and women who have served in all wars, conflicts and peace operations by commemorating the centenary of the First World War.

Attendance passes will be issued to those planning to attend these official commemorations in 2016, within the safe, secure and comfortable carrying capacity of the commemorative sites. Priority for attendance passes is afforded to Australian Citizens or permanent residents and will be allocated using a 'first in' approach.

To apply online for the 2016 Commemorations go to www.anzacentenary.gov.au and fill in your details.

Alternatively, complete the application form and send to 2016 Commemorations, GPO Box 1610, Sydney, NSW 2001

INTRODUCTION

Attending Fromelles and/or Pozières services in 2016 (2016 Commemorations) is a once in a lifetime experience, but it is important that you know what to expect at the services before completing this application form. The services are held at commemorative sites which have no permanent infrastructure or shelter.

A moderate level of fitness is required for visitors attending the 2016 Commemorations. Visitors may also need to stand for long periods of time, including in queues for security screening.

Limited basic facilities such as portable toilets and non-drinking water are brought into the sites for the services. As large numbers of visitors attend the services; seating is neither reserved nor guaranteed and is available on a first-come, first-served basis. Please note large groups may not be able to sit together.

More information on what to expect at the 2016 Commemorations is available on the Australian Government's website www.anzaccentenary.gov.au

PERSONAL DETAILS

What is your Passport Number – if you have a current passport?

In order to confirm your attendance pass eligibility, you will need to provide your current Passport number.

If you do not have a current passport, please leave this question blank. You will be required to provide this information within 60 calendar days of submission of your application.

Should you fail to provide your passport number within 60 days, your application for 2016 Commemorations will be cancelled.

Your name and passport number will be printed on your attendance pass and will be checked against your passport as identification when you enter the 2016 Commemorations. It is your responsibility to ensure these details are correct.

If you do not have a current passport, please go to Question 18.

Passport expiry date (dd/mm/yyyy)

You need to ensure that your passport has adequate validity from July 2016 to meet the entry requirements of the countries you intend to visit (or transit). Some countries require travellers to have at least six months' validity remaining on their passports beyond the period of intended stay, and immigration authorities may refuse entry if you arrive with less than this. Airlines and passenger shipping lines may refuse to carry you if your passport has inadequate validity.

Before travel you should contact the Embassy, High Commission or Consular representative of all the countries you will be travelling to, or seek advice from your travel agent, to identify each country's passport validity requirements. If you are unsure, it is safest to renew your passport prior to travelling.

Entry to France is at the discretion of the French authorities — possession of a current passport and an attendance pass for the commemorations does not guarantee entry to France.

ATTENDANCE PASS – ALLOCATION RULES

INTRODUCTION

Attendance passes will be provided free of charge by the Commonwealth of Australia (the Australian Government). An attendance pass is an invitation by the Australian Government to the person whose name appears on the pass (the pass-holder) to gain access to one of the following two commemorative sites (the 2016 Commemoration(s));

- 19 July 2016 – The Pheasant Wood Cemetery, Fromelles, to view;
 - 1:00pm - the Pheasant Wood Headstone Rededication Ceremony at Fromelles (Pheasant Wood) Military Cemetery
 - 5:00pm – the Australian National Commemorative Service at VC Corner on large screens, live.
- 23 July 2016 – Australian 1st division memorial, Pozières, to view;
 - the Australian National Commemorative Service at Pozières

The purpose of the Commemorative Services is to acknowledge the sacrifice of all Australian men and women who have served in all wars, conflicts and peace operations by commemorating the centenary of the First World War.

APPLICATION OF ALLOCATION RULES

An attendance pass is subject to these allocation rules and the terms and conditions, as well as any instructions displayed at the Commemoration sites. These allocation rules may be changed from time to time by the changes being posted on the Australian Government's website (www.anzaccenatary.gov.au) at the Australian Government's absolute discretion. The completion of a pass allocation application online and/or by post (whether in person or through an agent) and/or the acceptance of an allocated attendance pass confirms the applicant's agreement to the following allocation rules:

ATTENDANCE PASS ALLOCATION RULES

1. Attendance passes provide access for the pass holder to the ceremony location specified on the pass.
2. An attendance pass applicant must be an Australian citizen or permanent resident and hold a current passport.
3. Attendance passes do not confirm allocated seating or guarantee a full view of the ceremony. Ceremony locations will be filled utilising a 'first in' approach.
4. Non-pass holders may be directed to view commemorations at alternative designated locations, which will stream the service live for viewing via large screens.
5. Non-pass holders or ineligible applicants, including applicants of other nationalities, are encouraged to register their attendance so that they may be kept informed of updated information by the Australian Government.
6. All individuals over the age of three years, on the day of the commemorative service, must hold an attendance pass to gain access to the 2016 Commemorations. Individuals under the age of three are not conferred the right to any seat at all, and must sit on the lap of an attendance pass holder.
7. Attendance pass applications can only be made online or by post, using the form prescribed by the Australian Government.
8. Individuals requiring a paper form must download a form at: www.anzaccenatary.gov.au or contact Ticketek on 1300 364 002.
9. Applications for attendance passes can be made as from 12:00 hrs AEDST on Friday 4 December 2015. All online and postal applications must be received by the closing date being 11:59 PM AEDST on 31 May 2016 and/or by the time attendance pass allocations are exhausted, whichever is earlier.
10. Applications received after the closing date and/or attendance pass allocation exhaustion will be retained for registration and waitlist purposes only.

11. Applicants will receive up to 60 calendar days to confirm their current passport details within their application. Attendance pass applications are considered 'unconfirmed' until the Australian Government has received full passport details. Should applicants not provide details within the prescribed time, unconfirmed passes will immediately become available to new applicants.
12. A tour operator who makes an application on behalf of a customer must have a written authorisation from that customer before making the application. A tour operator may be required to provide to the Australian Government evidence of this written authorisation and/or proof of sale and confirmation of the tour group booking. The Australian Government may consider applications made by a tour operator on behalf of a customer 'unconfirmed' pending the tour operator providing the required information. Failure to provide the required information on request will result in unconfirmed passes becoming available to new applicants.
13. Where a tour operator makes an application on behalf of a customer, the customer will be treated as the applicant and the tour operator has no rights or entitlements in relation to the application.
14. A tour operator shall be taken to have accepted the allocation rules in so far as those rules apply to any customer of the tour operator.
15. Pass holders and commemorative event attendees who are under the age of 17 must be accompanied by a responsible adult to the 2016 Commemorations and other commemorative events.
16. The Australian Government may request that pass holders re-confirm their intention to attend a ceremony at any point for the purposes of reallocating surplus passes to waitlisted applicants. Failure to re-confirm an intention to attend does not automatically forfeit a confirmed pass.
17. Pass holders and commemorative event attendees are responsible for all of their costs and expenses, as well as travel and accommodation arrangements, in relation to their attendance at any commemorative event managed by the Australian Government.
18. Attendance passes cannot be traded, offered for sale or exchanged in any circumstances.
19. The Australian Government is responsible for attendance pass allocations but does not accept any responsibility whatsoever for any technical failure or malfunction or any other problem which may result in any email or application not being properly recorded or received.
20. No responsibility is accepted by the Australian Government for late or lost applications and proof of sending an application is not proof of receipt by the Australian Government.
21. Attendance pass holders must supply full personal and other details as required and must each comply with all rules in relation to the attendance pass allocation process.
22. The Australian Government reserves the right at any time to cancel, change or postpone any 2016 Commemoration(s) or attendance pass allocations if it in its opinion deems it appropriate to do so. Should the Commemoration or pass allocation be cancelled, postponed or changed for any reason, the Commonwealth will not be liable for any loss or expense incurred or to be incurred by any person (including a tour operator), including but not limited to the cost or expenses incurred or to be incurred in relation to travel to the Commemoration in France and/or for accommodation in relation to the Commemoration and/or loss of profits.
23. The terms and conditions that are applicable to the attendance passes will be available on the DVA's website. It should be noted that, although the Australian Government is responsible for arranging the 2016 Commemoration in France, control over who may enter France to attend the Commemoration as well as control over who may attend the Commemoration remains at all times with the Government of France. Therefore, an attendance pass does not confer on the person to whom the pass is provided with a right to attend the Commemoration.

24. The Privacy Policy is applicable to all persons applying for an attendance pass.
25. These allocation rules are governed by the laws of Australia.
26. In these allocation rules, a reference to a discretion or power that may be exercised by the Australian Government is a reference to the power or discretion that may be exercised by the Secretary of the Department of Veterans' Affairs (DVA) or any person appointed by the Secretary or his or her delegate for the purposes of the allocation rules, the terms and conditions or for the 2016 Commemoration(s).
27. Any reference to the allocation rules and the terms and conditions is a reference to the allocation rules and the terms and conditions as amended from time to time in accordance with the rules or terms and conditions.
28. As applicants and pass holders are bound by the allocation rules and terms and conditions as amended from time to time, applicants and pass holders are responsible for informing themselves of any amendments to the rules and terms and conditions, which may be viewed on the Australian Government's website at www.anzaccentenary.gov.au

ATTENDANCE PASS – TERMS AND CONDITIONS

 - 5:00pm – the Australian National Commemorative Service at VC Corner on large screens, live.
- 23 July 2016 – Australian 1st Division Memorial, Pozières, to view;
 - the Australian National Commemorative Service at Pozières

The purpose of the Commemorative Services is to acknowledge the sacrifice of all Australian men and women who have served in all wars, conflicts and peace operations by commemorating the centenary of the First World War.

APPLICATION OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS

An attendance pass is subject to the allocation rules and the terms and conditions, as well as any instructions displayed at the Commemoration sites. These terms and conditions may be changed from time to time by the changes being posted on the Australian Government's website (www.anzaccentenary.gov.au) in the Australian Government's absolute discretion. The completion of a pass allocation application online and/or by post (whether in person or thorough an agent) and/or the acceptance of an allocated attendance pass confirms the applicant's agreement to the following terms and conditions:

INVITATION TO ATTEND 2016 COMMEMORATION(S) ON THE WESTERN FRONT

1. The attendance pass is an invitation to the pass-holder by the Australian Government to attend the 2016 Commemorations at Fromelles and/or Pozières, France on 19 and 23 July 2016. Although the Australian Government will be responsible for managing the Commemoration in France, ultimate responsibility for, and control of, the Commemoration remains with the Government of France. Further, the Australian Government is not responsible for any other circumstances outside its control. For example, it may become necessary for the Australian Government to issue travel advisory warnings in respect of particular countries, including France. Consequently, the attendance pass does not confer on a pass-holder any right of access or entry to, or attendance at, the Commemoration.

2. An attendance pass does not confirm allocated seating or guarantee a full view of the ceremony.
3. The pass-holders agree that the provision to them of an attendance pass does not result in or create a contract between any pass-holder and the Australian Government or Ticketek Pty Ltd.
4. The Australian Government reserves the right at any time to postpone, change or cancel the 2016 Commemoration(s), if in its opinion it deems it appropriate to do so. The Australian Government also reserves the right to alter or change any aspect of the 2016 Commemoration(s) without prior notification.
5. All attendance pass-holders are responsible for all costs, travel and accommodation and accept all risks whatsoever, in relation to the 2016 Commemoration(s), including risks associated with any cancellation or postponement of, or change to, the Commemoration.
6. The Australian Government shall not be liable for any loss, damage, cost or expense (including any damage to personal property) suffered, incurred or to be incurred by reason, or in respect, of the pass-holder's attendance, or proposed attendance, at the 2016 Commemoration(s). Under no circumstances will the Australian Government be liable for foreseeable or unforeseeable, or for direct or indirect, loss or damage in any form.
7. The Australian Government shall not be liable to tour operators for any loss, damage, cost or expense (including any damage to personal property or loss of profits) suffered, incurred or to be incurred by reason, or in respect, of any person's attendance, or proposed attendance, at the 2016 Commemoration(s). Under no circumstances will the Australian Government be liable for foreseeable or unforeseeable, or for direct or indirect, loss or damage in any form.

8. In particular, should the 2016 Commemoration(s) be postponed, changed or cancelled, the Australian Government will not be liable for the payment of any compensation or for loss of money and/or expense incurred or to be incurred by the pass-holder or by any tour operator (including loss of profits).
9. A tour operator shall be taken to have accepted these terms and conditions in so far as the terms and conditions apply to any customer of the tour operator.

CANCELLATION OF AN ATTENDANCE PASS

- 10a. An attendance pass may be cancelled or revoked at any time by a delegate of the Australian Government without assigning a reason, and without giving the pass-holder any notice of an intention to cancel or revoke the pass, if the delegate suspects that the pass-holder might breach or has breached any of the allocation rules, any of these terms and conditions or has acted or might act in a manner that is inconsistent with the purpose of the Commemoration or with maintaining its dignity, solemnity or safety.
- 10b. A delegate of the Australian Government may refuse anyone entry to the 2016 Commemoration(s) in the delegate's absolute discretion and without prior notice, if the delegate suspects the pass-holder might engage in conduct that is prejudicial to, or inconsistent with, the purpose of the Commemoration or with maintaining its dignity solemnity or safety.
11. Any person who fails to comply with instructions from a delegate or other person purporting to act on behalf of the Australian Government at the Commemoration may be ejected. In addition, anyone found in the opinion of a delegate to be causing damage to any part of the site of the 2016 Commemoration(s), causing or threatening to cause harm to any other person at the Commemoration or in the near vicinity, or behaving in an illegal, anti-social or aggressive manner, or appearing to be under the influence of drugs or alcohol or otherwise acting in breach of these terms and conditions will be ejected from the venue or the immediate vicinity without any reason being assigned for the ejection. The conduct leading to the ejection may also be reported to the local police.

12. If a delegate of the Australian Government suspects that a tour operator might breach or has breached any of the allocation rules, or has made a false or misleading application on behalf of a pass holder, the delegate may cancel or revoke an attendance pass that has been allocated to a pass holder in the tour group or on the basis of an application made by the tour operator.

PARTICULAR THINGS THAT ARE NOT PERMITTED AT THE 2016 COMMEMORATION(S)

13. The following articles are not permitted at the Commemoration: large flags, advertising or marketing messages, chairs, knives, fireworks, smoke canisters, air horns, flares, weapons, dangerous or hazardous items, laser devices, glass vessels, cans, poles, and any article that might be used as a weapon or compromise public safety. This is a non-exhaustive list of the types of articles that are not permitted and the Australian Government retains a discretionary right throughout for a delegate to include additional items that are not permitted.
14. No alcohol is permitted to be taken into the Commemoration. Glass and cans are not permitted. No substances that are illegal under French or Australian law will be permitted.
15. No professional photography equipment (eg zoom lenses, audio visual or cinematographic devices) will be permitted into the 2016 Commemoration(s) without the prior written consent of the Australian Government or one of its delegates.
16. Smoking in at commemorative services is prohibited. All signage instructions at the 2016 Commemoration(s) must be observed.
17. No animals will be permitted, other than guide dogs for the blind and/or hearing dogs for the deaf and/or assistance dogs for disabled attendees.
18. The Australian Government by its delegate reserves the right to search all holders and their personal property and refuse admission to, or eject from, the 2016 Commemoration(s) any person who refuses to be searched by a delegate, the police or any person acting on their behalf.

PASSES ARE NOT TRANSFERABLE AND MUST BE KEPT WITH THE PASS-HOLDER

19. Subject to clauses 20 and 21 below, attendance passes are strictly non-transferable and cannot be sold, traded, assigned, transferred, offered for sale or exchanged in any circumstances. A breach or attempted breach of this condition is a ground for seizure or cancellation of the pass. Any pass obtained by a person in breach of this condition will result in that person being refused entry to, or participation in, the 2016 Commemoration(s).
20. If the Secretary of the Department of Veterans' Affairs (the Secretary), or his or her delegate, is satisfied that an attendance pass-holder is unable to attend the 2016 Commemoration(s) due to death or ill-health, then the Secretary (or delegate) may in his or her absolute discretion permit a relevant accompanying guest to nominate a person to attend the Commemoration with them, subject to that person providing all necessary information and agreeing to these terms and conditions. A new attendance pass, bearing the nominee's name and passport details, will be issued.
21. The Secretary (or delegate) may in his or her absolute discretion issue or reallocate an attendance pass at any time (including before the commencement of the application process) where the Secretary (or delegate) is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so. The Secretary (or delegate) may impose conditions for the issuance or reallocation of passes under this clause in his or her absolute discretion.

22. Attendance passes cannot be used by anyone other than the person whose name appears on it. All attendance pass-holders will be required to have with them at all times photographic identification in the form of a passport or a current Australian issued driving license.
23. Any holder of an attendance pass must have a valid pass in their possession to enter the Commemoration sites and must retain their passes at all times during the Commemoration.
24. The Australian Government by its delegate may ask for reasonable proof that the bearer of the attendance pass is the pass-holder and has been provided with the pass in accordance with the allocation rules or any other ticket distribution methods employed by the Australian Government.
25. Re admission to the Fromelles 2016 Commemoration(s) will be permitted between commemorative services on the day of 19 July 2016.
26. No re admissions to the Pozières 2016 Commemoration(s) will be permitted on the day of 23 July 2016.

FILMING OF THE COMMEMORATION

27. The 2016 Commemoration(s) will be filmed for live and recorded transmission, including internet streaming. Attendance pass-holders hereby give their express consent to the use of their actual or simulated likeness in connection with the production, exhibition, advertising or exploitation of any film, video and/or audio recording of the Commemoration and/or any element thereof in any/all media throughout the world in perpetuity.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND APPLICATION OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS, AND DEFINED TERMS

28. In these terms and conditions, a reference to a delegate of the Australian Government is a reference to the Secretary or any person appointed by the Secretary or his or her delegate for the purposes of the Allocation Rules, these Terms and Conditions or for the 2016 Commemoration(s).
29. In these terms and conditions, a reference to a discretion or power that may be exercised by the Australian Government is a reference to the power or discretion that may be exercised by the Secretary or any person appointed by the Secretary or his or her delegate for the purposes of the allocation rules, these terms and conditions or for the 2016 Commemoration(s).
30. The Australian Government has contracted Ticketek Pty Ltd (Ticketek) to provide attendance passes to all persons invited by the Australian Government to attend the 2016 Commemoration(s). The attendance passes will therefore also be subject to Ticketek's terms and conditions.
31. The Privacy Policy is applicable to all attendance pass-holders.
32. These terms and conditions are governed by the laws of Australia.
33. Any reference to the allocation rules and the terms and conditions is a reference to the allocation rules and the terms and conditions as amended from time to time in accordance with the rules or terms and conditions.
34. As pass holders are bound by the allocation rules and terms and conditions as amended from time to time, pass holders are responsible for informing themselves of any amendments to the rules and terms and conditions, which may be viewed on the Australian Government's website at www.anzaccentenary.gov.au.

PRIVACY POLICY

1. Ticketek Pty Ltd (Ticketek) has been contracted by the Australian Government Department of Veterans' Affairs (DVA) to provide attendance pass services for the 2016 Centenary Services (the 2016 Commemoration(s)).
2. All of the information that you provide to Ticketek, as the collector of the information, will be passed on to DVA, which is responsible for organising the 2016 Commemoration(s).
3. Ticketek and its related entities will not, in any way, use the information you provide for marketing purposes.
4. Ticketek is collecting your information solely for the purposes of determining your eligibility to receive an attendance pass and, if you are successful, issuing you with an attendance pass.
5. DVA requires the information for the following purposes:
 - To confirm your eligibility to receive an attendance pass for the 2016 Commemoration(s) and your compliance with the allocation rules.
 - To provide to you information about your attendance pass should you receive one.
 - If you receive an attendance pass, to check on an ongoing basis whether you comply with the terms and conditions applicable to the attendance pass or whether there are any circumstances which might lead to your attendance pass being cancelled.
 - To manage and assist with your attendance at the 2016 Commemoration(s), for example to organise mobility assistance if required, should you be allocated an attendance pass.
 - To prepare statistical information for cultural and historical purposes. Statistical information unique to you, like your name and address, will not be reported or used.
6. In order to carry out these purposes, DVA may disclose your information to relevant Federal or State government agencies, including law enforcement and security agencies. For example, DVA may disclose your information to Federal and State Police for a security or police check. DVA may also disclose your information to French law enforcement and security agencies.
7. You are under no obligation to provide the information requested or to consent to its disclosure, but you will not be able to receive an attendance pass if you do not do so.
8. Your information will be stored by DVA and will be destroyed in due course in accordance with the Archives Act 1983 (Cth).
